Annual Notice of Non-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment Statement

If you have difficulty understanding English, you have the right to receive language assistance at no cost to you. Please contact your school's principal for more information on language assistance.

The Hawai'i State Department of Education (Department) does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, and religion under applicable state and federal laws, such as Title VI, Title VII, Title IX, or ADA/Section 504. This requirement extends to all of the Department's programs and activities, including employment and admissions as applicable.

For the Department high schools that offer Career and Technical Education (CTE) Programs of Study in the following CTE pathways: Cultural Arts, Media, and Entertainment; Business Management, Finance, and Marketing, Health Services; Information Technology and Digital Transformation; Building and Construction, Advanced Manufacturing; Energy; Architectural Design and Engineering Technology; Transportation Services; Agriculture, Food, and Natural Resources; Education; Hospitality, Tourism, and Recreation; and Law and Public Safety, there are no admission criteria for these programs of study. Department high schools will take steps to assure that the lack of English language skills will not be a barrier to admission and participation in CTE programs.

The Department does not tolerate acts of harassment on the basis of race, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, and religion. Any student who believes that he or she has been subjected to harassment on the basis of race, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, and religion is encouraged to report such harassment. Students and parents may report allegations of discrimination or harassment to the school's administrator or to the Department's Civil Rights Compliance Branch at the address listed below.

The Department is committed to conducting prompt investigations. Support, including counseling and educational resources, will be available to students who are harassed as well as to students found to have engaged in acts of harassment on the basis of race, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, and religion. Students found to have engaged in harassment may be disciplined up to and including suspension if circumstances warrant. Students, parents, and Department staff should work together to prevent harassment on the basis of race, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, and religion.

The Department will not tolerate retaliation for reporting discrimination and/or harassment on the basis of race, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, age, disability, and religion, and will take steps to protect those who wish to report the discrimination or harassment.
