

Elevatus Training Curriculum - Sexuality Education for People with Developmental Disabilities, Adapted for People with High Support Learning Needs

The Sexuality Education for People with Developmental Disabilities, Adapted for People with High Support Learning Needs curriculum by Elevatus Training is an evidence-informed program guided by theories and practices that have a history of demonstrating positive results.

In order to reach all people with intellectual and developmental disabilities, this curriculum is designed for people who need simplified concepts, more visuals, and more time to process information. Each lesson includes lesson plans, handouts, a slide deck, a review game, and an instructor's guide. This curriculum is ideal for one-on-one support and small groups. The content is more cognitively accessible by including many graphics and story cards.

The general description of the curriculum was adapted from information provided on the publisher's website.

Reference

Elevatus Training. (2024). Sexuality education for people with developmental disabilities, adapted for people with high support learning needs. Retrieved July 17, 2024 from <https://www.elevatustraining.com>.

Opt-Out Process

A student shall be excused from sexual violence prevention instruction only upon the prior written request of the student's parent or legal guardian. A student may not be subject to disciplinary action, academic penalty, or other sanctions if the student's parent or legal guardian makes such written request.

For more information about the Department's Sexual Violence Prevention Program, visit bit.ly/HIDOE-SVP.